

COMMON APPLICATION™ 2005-2006

College Deadlines, Fees, and Requirements

NOTES:

- All colleges are coeducational unless marked (W) or (M).
- Some colleges may charge an alternate fee for international applications. Check institutional application instructions where an asterisk (*) appears in the Fee column.
- Source for obtaining supplements. Key: (O) online at www.commonapp.org, (W) on college website, (A) in application packet mailed by the college, (M) mailed to student upon receipt of Common App, (C) call the admission office.
- If English is not your native language, consult institutional information for required testing (TOEFL or other test).
- Common App forms required. Key: (TE) Teacher Evaluation, (SR) School Report, (MY) Midyear Report. Consult college instructions regarding required letters of recommendation.
- Most member colleges accept electronic submission via Common App Online™. All accept hardcopy. A few colleges waive/reduce application fees for online submission.

- It is important that students review institutional publications or websites for complete application requirements and instructions. For items marked with an asterisk (*), check the appropriate college materials or call the admission office.
- Transfer applicants: Not all colleges accept the Common App for transfer students. Check college-specific profiles on Common App Online (<http://app.commonapp.org>), at the College Info link and/or institutional materials before submitting.
